fork slipped from his hand. His

COFFEE AND TEA.

put a piece of lump sugar, the size of a walnut into a teapot, you will make the tea infuse in half the time." Persons who have tried this last experiment say that the result is satisfac-

THE BRITISH POSTAL SYSTEM,

Mr. Mundella, M. P., in an address in New York during his late visit, thus referred to the British postal service: "The postal service, the first to be reduced from the influence of politics. When Sir Rowland Hill have changed the postal tariffs of the world, he found success would entirely depend upon his ability to se-cure the best possible administrative ntroduced those great reforms, which

ent. To this end political appoint ments were abolished, the selection of suitable officers were vested with the beads of the departments, and effici-

all printed circulars not sealed at the tory.

REFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE CITY. SUNDAY MORNING, : :: MARCH 3, 1872.

FORNEY DISGRACES GRANT. If anything had been needed to es-publication, says:

print; and so all your sche to make him president will gang a gley.'
Then Rawlins took it in to General Grant returned he said: "General Grant is quite oval or was published with his sanction question. In speaking of the Hon E. B. Washburne, who would like to be considered the conscience-keeper and guardian of General Grant, the latter expressed his designation of Mr. Washburne's patronizing sire, and said he could not understand polsoned fountains, and, when opportunity and the polsoned fountains, and, when opportunity and the polsoned fountains. by he was so constantly annoyed by his sunity offers, sweep from power the administration of the government?" Washburne before the war, and that Mr. usurpers and corruptionists who defile General McClernand also remarked Washburne before the war, and that Mr.

Washburne knew quite as little of him."

The dispatch conceinded as follows:

The report of the conversation I obtained affectly from General Grant's friend, with full means of redress will have passed full means of redress will have passed forever from their hands.

that "the proposed withdrawal of the party was a matter about which Democrats might well differ. For himself he was free to confess that the adopof the same, that the forever from their hands. storm under General Grant's wing.

I immediately telegraphed to Washington, and got the following authorized contradiction of the dispatch in the Bos-

i nor annovance at the appearance of the cie in the Carconce and the Press, nor di-ntimate to any one that it misrepresente be about fifty-six years old Of president, he will be accused as the will-

"thinks the Republican party may and particularly among the ministers, need him," and chaffers about the show that a Reform party is needed price. Instead of distrusting his abili- in the church. The Tweeds and the tune which will suffice for the few numbers and in wealth; we have made, and expressed his gratification department of the government. For the Sunday Appeal. SUNDAY APPEAL made, and expressed his gratification department of the government, that it was in the power of himself Large sums of money have been exand a few friends to do a kindness to pended by it in bribes to senators and one so distinguished, whose life had members of the house, and the efbeen devoted to the service of his fect of this corruption is to be country. Mr. Calboun immediately seen in the enormous land grants wrote back, declining the offer, and and special privileges, that withdrawing his original request. He have been acceded to the said it did not agree with his sense of great corporations. Wherever the tablish the littleness, avarice and cu- propriety to accept a loan upon such Radicals have had control of the govtablish the littleness, avarice and cuplicity of the Great Gift-Taker, who has made the White House the receptacle for his haberdashery, the recent publication of John W. Forney furnishes to any one. The sentiment illustrated in the course of Mr. Calbour ascribed to the Tammany Democrats

Radicals have had control of the government in the Southern States they have followed the example set them at Washington. They have plundered right and left, until the doings ascribed to the Tammany Democrats ascribed to the Tammany Democrats. it. Aspirants for the presidency gen- trated in the course of Mr. Calhoun ascribed to the Tammany Democrats trated in the course of Mr. Calhoun was only an exhibition of delicacy themselves what good they can do the country, and consider the honor and twenty-five thousand dollars per annum a sufficient reward for their in official life. Mr. Lawrence was a section to the Tammany Democrats at New York sink beside theirs into Where sorrow nor sin a cknown, was only an exhibition of delicacy that was not uncommon on the part of the great statesmen from all sections who were his contemporaries in official life. Mr. Lawrence was a section to the Tammany Democrats at New York sink beside theirs into Where sorrow nor sin a cknown, which is the country of the country annum a sufficient reward for their in official life. Mr. Lawrence was a they desecrate, let the church hunt services. But Grant discusses the gentleman of great wealth, and largely presidency as he would a trade for a local interested in manufactures. The busi-box of cigars, a tannery or a fine horse.

In omicial life, Mr. Lawrence was a country out the lustini hypocrites, the knaves, out the lustini hypocrites, the knaves, who steal the livery of heaven in Their ceaseless matins sing. He was actuated by the belief that the would be more affected by the tariff they disgrace. Let the pastors of her mother's angel wing. Radicals wanted him, could not do legislation of congress than that of they disgrace. Let the pastors without him, and he proposed to Mr. Lawrence. He wanted congres. of the various churches ignore safe, where sorrow, and shame, and sin, without him, and he proposed to sorve as President, not for the purpose of giving peace to the country, elevating the American character, have made a legitimate loan, and expose of giving the American character, elevating the American character elevating the American character elevating the American character elevating the American character elevating the American character, elevating the American character, elevating the American character, elevating the American character, elevating the American character elevating and perpetuating our institutions; but ecuted adequate security for its re- a box at the opera, and they will draw for pecuniary profits, perquisites and payment. Had he not been in public around them, through the blessings for pecuniary profits, perquisites and gifts from rich men! It seems from the very first movement made to nominate Grant for the presidency he was actuated solely and entirely by the amount of money to be made out What a change has been wrough, in pummelled, if the blows are square of the office. Forney, in his recent the conduct of our public men during and fair, and dealt by the hand of Aged mother! with silvered hair, and forehead furrowed o'er, the conduct of our public men during the thirty-two years that have elapsed since the occurrence above mentioned!

In those days public men avoided all follow suicides: murder treads upon the thirty-two years that have elapsed since the occurrence above mentioned!

In those days public men avoided all follow suicides: murder treads upon the triangle of the triangl I retired to my rooms on Capitol Hill since the occurrence above mentioned! like Huston. It seems the very heaven's prepared a five column article, which appeared in the Washington Chronicle In those days public men avoided all follow suicides: murder treads upon appearance of evil. If an exceptional follow suicides; murder treads upon 1867. After it was in type Senstor Thayer and myself called upon John A Rawlins, case occurred, a public opinion would robbing and oppressing the people. chief of General Grant's staff, and read it to him. He instantly advised that it should appear the very next day, but I should appear the very next day, but I sanswered that "General Grant was not a candidate for president, and did not desire banishment from official councils."

| Continue of the council there was little doubt that some superserviceable politician would call upon him and ask him if he had been made a cendiand ask him if he had been made a candidate with his sanction. He will, of course the shameless example of accepting ey of God must be boundless, or the date with his sanction. He will, of course, reply that he never saw the article until gifts or bribes. Prior to his inaugurames tion, a $60,000 house and lot was purant, chased and donated to him; and, when GENER AL MCCLERNAND, OF ILLIand stayed quite a long time. When he he came to make up his cabinet, the he came to make up his cabinet, the principal donator and originator of the principal donator and originator or the principal be so good a Republican." Upon this hint head of the treasury department, cus for the consideration of the pas-My misgivings were correct; for on that Public patronage has become an article sive policy. The sentiment of the day an elaborate dispatch was sent of commerce, and is under the man-meeting may be gathered from the Washington to the Boston Post, stating that "a distinguished friend of General Machington who General Grant and called upon him with the article and inquired if it met his approval or was applicable with the political stock exchange. Editors of newspapers are appointed nominate candidates to be defeated, e promptly denied all knowledge of the bilication, and expressed his indignation at the liberty taken by his self-styled defending the lawlessness and corruption at the liberty taken by his self-siyled defending the lawlessness and corrup-friend who had concected the article in tions of the administration. There is passive, aid the powerful Liberal Reevery reason to fear that, unless the publican forces in overthrowing righteous anger.

NOIN, ON THE SITUATION.

tion of the passive or Missouri policy was our only hope. The great desire of every patriotic heart was the defeat of affairs. This could not be accom plished by the Democratic party alone, and wisdom dictated that we should accept the honorable alliance

that is offered by the Liberal Republi-

CARL SERVEZ

Knights of the Broken Lance before the

-A CLERICAL SCOUNDERL. There will surely be a rise in the market of sackcloth and ashes since the fall of the infamous Dr. Huston, of caused many to realize the cynical forty-parson power" to sing the do so." praises of the great goddess Hypo-, and he asserts unequivocally cracy. These shocking revelations cause both sinner and saint to loose Grant with the editorial, he told us with faith in humanity. Huston must have great emphasis: "General Grant does not been a model hypogrita. His gravet been a model hypocrite. His cravat n party may need him, and he be was white as the beautiful snow. His shelr candidate he can be elected eyes had so often been lifted toward is to become of him after his second presidential larms—what, indeed, during his administration? He is receiving from eventues to twenty thousand dollars a that direction. His mind was so pure year as general of the armies of the re- that he felt it a religious duty to hob--a life salary To go into the pres-t twenty-five thousand dollars a ble the chicken cock to prevent his year for eight years is, perhaps, to gain more fame; but what is to bee me of him lanting the hens on Sunday, and be about his/sair years old of lation of the Sabbath. Huston howlent. England, with her Wellington, her ed, talked, breathed and belched reour country the man who fights for and translated. But beneath the thin crust he entered the household of his olitician. He does not aspire to the place. to yoke the geese to keep them from going in the fishpond washing in vio-Nelson and her other heroes on land and ligion. He was so sanctimonious that the terrible mental and physical sufhoble them through all their posterity, his wife should have tied him to the ferings to which Bogumil Dawison, been a prey ever since he left the United States in the spring of 1867. of piety there was a seething caldron be expired on the 2i of February at his converted service the republic would be a beggar if he expired on the 2i of February at his vilia, near Dresden, only fifty-four years fortunes he has saved, after he pent that entered the garden of Eden, born at Warsaw, in Poland, on the This development will, no doubt, cause the President to blush and ask cause the Cause to hang their heads in shame. It re- horrid whip, is scourging the rascal long in mastering the rudiments of that seemed to be beyond the probaminds us of the niggardly littleness of the parsimonious miser, who, on being invited to drink, said he would been, and loathed by God, whose holy been, and loathed by God, whose holy been and loathed by God, whose holy been attracted by his winning their neads in shame. It remains a long in mastering the rudiments of that seemed to be beyond the probability of realization. Everyone who believe that the good fortune to be acquainted with Mendelssohn must been attracted by his winning out of a balloon. Julius Capar was being invited to drink, said he would take his in twenty cents. Many years foreign musician of world-wide are a foreign musician of world-wide are so far gone in decay that there is with domestic cares, finds herself obtained by finding the rebellion but mother by copying manuscripts at two cents a page, and by painting signs for small retail merchants. One of heart disease. Governor Hoffman days for first courte out of a balloon. Julius Cesar was design during the rebellion but have been attracted by his winning mother by copying manuscripts at two cents a page, and by painting signs manners, his courteous bearing and his manifestation of decided character. Whether he won upon the old man by which to purge away our of heart disease. Governor Hoffman days for first courte out of a balloon. Julius Cesar was cents at two cents a page, and by painting signs manners, his courteous bearing and his manifestation of decided character. Whether he won upon the old man by the domestic cares, finds herself obtained with menders at two cents a page, and by painting signs manners, his courteous bearing and of heart disease. Governor Hoffman are so far gone in decay that there is with domestic cares, finds herself obtained with menders at two cents a page, and by painting signs manners, his courteous bearing and of heart disease. Governor Hoffman distinctly the beautiful image of fame, on visiting Washington, was introduced to a member of the cabinet, when he frantically rushed up to net, when he frantically rushed up to did he not know that it is a particular, or by their situation. He proved apt and will combination, can only be inferred. Suffice it to say that after a long particular, or by their situation. He proved apt and will suffice in comparison to the torteen years old, to write brief criticisms first, quietly using the other in draw-of the performances at the Warsaw ing the stops, as if to test the variety the same vulgar lust for gold. He developed themselves in the church, of the performances at the Warsaw theaters. Deciding, a few years later, to become an actor, Dawison went to got out as many as seemed applicable the manager of a Warsaw theater, and for his purpose, he made a dash which was employed there at first in very completely staggered the old man, and ties, expressing a desire to bring order out of chaos, the demand for states. Tammany churches. While the polimanship and a pure, honest and econoties, expressing a desire to bring order out of chaos, the demand for states. Tammany churches. While the polimanship and a pure, honest and econoties, expressing a desire to bring order out of chaos, the demand for states. The old man gasped for breath. He soon afterward to Vilna, where he clutched the rail against which he was appeared in all sorts of roles, and pro-bably laid the foundation of that as if he would drag this bold intruder the position purely with a mercenary temples. Unless both rebuke corrupmarked manysidedness as an actor from his seat. That impulse was, how view, and calculates, not the good tion, they will deserve the fate of for which he afterward was so noted. ever, only momentary, for he soon he can do, the fame he can leave as a tich inheritance to his children, but how many dollars Sodom and Gomorrha, and they will where he played leading parts and acted as stage-manager. By this time he had become convinced the master spirit was that made the and cents it will add to his coffers.

Every president, from Washington vices will manifest themselves. The down, has retired poorer than when he entered the presidential mansion. But, debauched with the lust for money, Grant proposes to take a new thieves and to inaugurate purity in very industriously for several years, decided upon the former course; but leparture by becoming a gift-taker the government, and the church the characteristic Polish accent clung at this moment the old man seized obstinately to him. At length, in him by the arm and gasped out, and making the office of president the should drive from the pulpit the impostors who degrade their calling. The tenderness of conscience, and long service as speaker of the house of high sense of honor, which long service as speaker of the house of once prevailed among us, and the manager of the theater refused to I refused him to touch my organ!" he twenty thousand dollars a year, say. which made a defaulter to the governiet him play any further. From Bres sorrowfully said. But as Mendelssohn lau he went to Berlin, where Louis began again to play, he gave an impasions to wealth, I have a private for- no longer. We have increased in him very warm letters of introduction turbed, and listened and listened as to Maurice, the manager of the famous he never listened sgain, as if some years of life which may remain to me, made steam and electricity our servined I should be happier in feeling that tors; we have manifested an invent-I am not a burden to my fellow coun. Ive genius that has astonished the Polish Jew soon became a favorite of the property of five or six feet. He believes in the Judgment and regret in the heart of try men." How proudly does the peoples of the old world. But in Several years afterward he was enconduct of the great and pure, but morals, in respect for the law, and in gaged for life at the Holburg theater, Joubt, during the time that he was icere reverence for religion, we have in Vienna, position a spared, was never for an hour obliter with the contemptible littleness of U. seriously deteriorated. If we trace short time afterwards, being unable, as he asmitted himself, to play side by side with actors rivaling him in ability, and went to Dresden, now spreading over the country like where he obtained a still more favorable and more favorable and more favorable and the operations of the country like where he obtained a still more favorable and the operations of the country like where he obtained a still more favorable and the operations of the country like where he obtained a still more favorable and the operations of the country like where he obtained a still more favorable and the operations of the country like where he obtained a still more favorable and the operations of the country like where he obtained a still more favorable and the operations of the country like where he obtained a still more favorable and the operations of the country like where he obtained a still more favorable and the operations of the country like where he obtained a still more favorable and the operations of the country like where he obtained a still more favorable and the operations of the country like where he obtained a still more favorable and the operations of the country like where he obtained a still more favorable and the operations of the country like where he obtained and the operations of the country like where he obtained and the operations of the country like where he obtained and the operations of the country like where he obtained and the operations of the country like where he obtained and the operations of the country like where he obtained and the operations of the country like where he obtained and the operations of the country like where he obtained and the operations of the country like where he obtained and the operations of the country like where he obtained and the operations of the country like where he obtained and the operations of the country like where he obtained and the operations of the country like where he obtained and the operati

"GONE REFORE." [Sacred to the Memory of Jennie Jones.] BY LIDE MESIWATHES. A shaft has sped from the bow of Fate,
And a golden dream is o'er;
An angel has knocked at the shining gate,
And passed through the opening door;
Still lies the casket, fair and bright,
Roses circle the brow so white,
Spotless and pure, in her robes of light,
She has only "gone before."

What though I fail? Am I the first? Or am I shamed because I fail nation would be smitten with His That such a heart as yours should beat With triumph as you tell the tale?

Fos fail—not you! I doubt it not.

You never knew defeated pride.

They well may win whose alms are base;

They scarce can fail who no'r have tries

You have no "taste" for deep pursuits,
Nor any hope beyond the hour;
Content to win some hodman's praise
With poor conceits of shallow power;
Tossing cheap wisdom, neatly dressed
And glided, to a gaping crowd;
"Discerning" all things—not like those Who "wrap their meaning in a cloud,"

While half of it is lined with gail, The first to hear, the first to sting, And tell it when your betters fail, Thrice better were it now to die, While striving for the great and just, Than drag liree lifetimes out like thin And fatten on such poisoned dust! But pass. I choose to die, or reach
The forefront where the bravest bleed.
Ke-p thou the rear and leave to men
Less greatly meek to take the lead.
But spare them they chance to fall;
For, trust me, noblest souls are those Who, failing, rise and strive anew.
And mix in battle to the close,
—Good Words.

MENDELSSOHN AS AN ORGANIST.

of Grant and to bring about a change Great as Mendelssohn was as a as the test for promotion. Under his hands each instrument "discoursed" after a manner as original as it was captivating. Scarcely ginal as it was captivating. Scarcely had he touched the keyboard than which all Englishmen are proud. It can element. It was a duty that we owed to our party and the country to owed to our party and the country to held them spellbound—a sensation reforms. During the present year that was only dissolved as the last chord was struck, and when one's pent-up breath seemed as if only able ounces to a half-penny. It delivers to recover its usual action by means of

An anecdote relative to this feeling may here introduce, as told me by card, stamp and delivery, can be purchased for a half-penny. It has reof Men elssohn beins in Switzerland, duced the rate on ocean and contihe and Sir Michael met at the church nental postage, and all are looking of Friburg, in which building the or- forward to the time when it will give gan is of such world wide ce- us an ocean penny postage. It gives the Royal opera, Berlin, one night money orders, acts as a national sayly those who lay claim to any mu-ly those who lay claim to any mu-sical taste—leave the town without host of other facilities. It has recent going to hear it. At the time referred ly purchased all the telegraphs, and to, the custodian was somewhat of a reduced the rates thirty per cent., and their respective friends and admirers. either for love or money, to permit took into its employ all the operators any stranger to place his fingers upon without any inquiry into their poligaro." The battle of disapprobation the keys, although he himself had not ties. It subsidizes a fleet of more than the slightest pretension to the designous hundred and fifty steamships, and nation of an organist, and far from after paying all expenses of every deshowing the capabilities of the instru-ment, induced many to go away un lion dollars annually as profit to the forward to the forward to the foot-lights, and rated der the impression that they had been | national exchequer "sold," and that all Murray and other He expired on the 2d of February at guide-books has stated was nothing better than "a delusion and a snare. lowing valuable mortuary list: Meyears old. Bogumil Dawison was Mendelssohn was recoived, by hook born at Warsaw, in Poland, on the or by crook, to ascertain what the 18th of May, 1818. He was the son of Friburg organ was made of. For this fell a wig-time to hairysipelas. Goli of tears. The public at last became Young Bogumil, however, was not child-but as to getting his consent, reading books. He was employed by his patron, when he was hardly sixhis patron whe tumor. Red Jacket died of whooping of their quality, and when he had thus cough. Tecumseh of scalp disease. German government has determined that the houses in the empire shall be

SWALLOWING A FORK.

will probably be in favor of it. elency and reliability of the predicions of the Storm Signal bureau, a lew hours before the late violent and astrous storm in that State, teleand the men barely succeeded in getmarsh a short time before the surplus waters of the Sacramento broke over closed, but there is an idea that a lit-

tie spite can be shown by setting up

THE PRICE OF OLD COIVS. friends got terribly frightened and attempted to pull it out sgain, but all was in valn. The young man was immediately carried to the hospital of Santa Maria, and there he still lies, and eats and drinks with his fork in and other old coins, respecting the his stomach. The crowd before the hospital has been so great that police officers have been stationed at the different doors to prevent the people breaking into the hospital conditions which determine the price paid by purchasers of rare coins, for particular specimens. The facts stated by the Figure in the lacts stated by the lacts breaking into the hospital. Such an extraordinary case has naturally excited great interest in the medical old collections, and enquiring for purchasers. It seems to be the impression that almost any old coins will bring high prices. This is a great mistake. Coin-fanciers buy only those One of our best physicians sends us specimens which are rare and well the following note: "I am extremely preserved. Old coins that are badly tond of a good cup of coffee, and wish worn they sometimes purchase, but to add my testimony as to the truth not at high prices. Most of the col of the article on this subject in your lections offered for sale are worthless March number. Twenty years ago I old coppers. It is not the ancient date purchased in Paris a small filtering which determines the value to a nucleofeepot. For a long time I used the grounds as coarsely as it is usually of the oldest are among the most common in collections. But one that is sold in the shops. Although procuring the best barries possible, I did not uniformly succeed in obtaining at the breeking table. But one that is not especially if it be "uncirculated" break ast table a first-rate beverage. —that, is, fresh, clear and sharply de-I consulted many wiseacres, some of fined, with the planchet or disc unwhom said that the water used should clipped, and the die, on both faces, be hotter, others that the coffee should distinct and unworn, will combe notice, others that the coffee should be first soaked in cold water, etc. By mere accident one day I happened to have the coffee re-ground to the fineness of snuff. Herein lay the mystery. I have never since failed to obtain a strong, full-flavored beverage, and that, too, without using so large a quantity of coffee." A correspondent of figure, date, or anything else but quantity of cofice." A correspondent of the Independent, traveling in Sweden, was intensely delighted with made, blank piece of silver, very the coffee served on the steam-boats and in the hotels. "At Up. sula," he writes, "we determined to suls," he writes, "we determined to find out how they made such perfect coffee as we had just drank, and stepped into the neat little kitchen of the little hotel, and this was the report: 'Take any kind of coffee pot or urn, and suspend a bag made of felt or very heavy flannel, so long that it reaches the hottom, round on a wire. reaches the bottom, round on a wire two known specimens. One of these, just fitting the top; put in the freshground, pure coffee and pour on fresh-ly boiled water. The fluid filters through the bag, and may be used at once; needs no settling, and retains a Carolina "elephant piece" of the once; needs no settling, and retains all the aroma.' The advantage of this over the ordinary filter is in economy, as the coffee stands and soaks out the strength, instead of merely letting the water pass through it." A French specimens of all these, for which high water pass through it." A French specimens of all these, for which high alters her course without a murmur, comforting assurance is, that they perchemist asserts that if tea be ground prices were paid. But in the case of and silently sets herself to study. In like coffee before hot water is poured upon it, it will yield nearly double ARECDOTES OF RATS. The following curious anecdote furnishes another instance of the occasional confidence of animals in others Some years since, I lived in the vilto such small deer. I doomed the rate ency and good service only required as the test for promotion. What is manger for the purpose of reconnoitering, but none descended. Having waited half an hour to no purpose, I let in the dogs, and in a few minutes they were again feeding cheek-by-jowl. Had I not ascertained this, I might have supposed that altering the position of the trough, or some other trifling disarrangement of the econosame charge. It provides cards, 41 infining disarrangement of the economic inches by 31, which, including the my of the kennel, had aroused the inches by 31, which, including the seemed, however, to be aware that their safety was connected with the presence of the dogs.

during the first week in February. There is a great jealousy between Fran Lucca and Fran Mallinger, and will shortly further reduce them. It That night matters came to a crisis. one hundred and fifty steamships, and from act to act, and at last it became the public in good set terms. She told prehend the true principles of them that if they kept on in that style them that if they kept on in that style are them. The increase of them that if they kept on in that style increase of them. lowing valuable mortuary list: Methusaleh died of liver complaint. Mallinger, less courageous, had sunk grass widow. John Bunyan, troubled and the Emperor, who was passing, tezums died of taking arrowroot. four engines, the turrets and guns to To be instructed, learned, paralsis. Joe Miller died of a light second class. The principal reason astablish great gambling houses in reason is, that they were not far enough completed to be isunched bevocates of it have just brought for the universal demand for retablish great gambling houses in reason is, that they were not far enough completed to be isunched before the universal demand for rethe war over, the corporal the life of an old maid who rears calleft for his native home, promising to ward their strongest argument— trenchment at the close of the war naries, hawks scandal, does crochet- name the happy day. Last week the discredited by her mether, who ennamely, that the Germans are excompelled the government to stop all work, and attends every service. This widow received her lover's orders to deavored to persuade her that there tremely uneasy at the prospects of the Paris gambling tables causing the Baden Ems, Homburg, and Wiesbaden establishments to be de-Wiesbaden e enormous eyster, with two gaiters at rival rouge-et-noir tables, for which reason the whole population of France this oyster moved an with seaweed, at the top. Behind gend'arme, booted, and with an im-A LARGE land-owner in California trying to open the oyster with his had talent; not once did a hint of aucolored webbing, and with nothing else on but a pearl-color, and who graphed from San Francisco to his son look. This oyster made a great hit. in charge at the ranche to at once re- which she moistened with too much move all the stock from the valley to champagne, so that, on leaving the the high land, as a severe storm was opera, she found it necessary to com-impending. The order was obeyed, out of her shell, and began a wild out of her shell, and began a wild ting the last of the stock out of the Finally this pearl-oyster went to sleep

ORGANIC MEMAINS.

Six tunes, in ail. I think, he ground— Six rasping, whee-whaw, wheezy tunes, All summer long he came around, And ground away the afternoons, One darned eternal, hearld grind, Of Captain Jinks and Sot for Joe, A German waits and Auid Lang Syne, An Irish jig and Jump Jim Crow, This organ-grinder had, I ween, A look all humble and forforn, And furthermore, of red and green, A monkey dressed in uniform. His monkeyship was keen and cute— So clever, too, that I began To side with Darwin, and to boot I thought the monkey most a man.

One afternoon the two came round As usual, and a-grinding stood. When lo! an earthquake shook the gre And buildings of the neighborhood. There was a sudden stampede then, From basements through to attic necks of children, women, do s and men, Ana bottis-washers and chief cocks. Pell-meil, the cultured and ill-bred, Without regard to courtests; They found the organ-grind-r dead To all intents and purposes. At least, the fragments, lean and lank, Look'd something like him when adjuste Also asurplus tail and crank, Prov'd elearly org, and monk, had busted.

Some was the organ lock had sprung. The night before, is could be seen, And hidden in its wheezy lung. An ounce of nitro-gly-erine.

away, And, in the shadow of our grief shut in, Refuse the lesser good we yet migut win The offered peace and gladness of to-day.

THROUGH LIFE.

So through the chambers of our life we per And leave them one by one, and never a Not knowing how much pleasantness to Was In each, until the closing of the door Has sounded through the house, and do Away. And in our hearts we sigh, "For evermore.

ENGLISH GIRLS AS STUDENTS.

nineteen-twentieths of the "collec- none of the houses which I have en- their faith. They never make a strong tions" which are now being brought tered in London or in the country grasp of the divine promises. They the amount of its exhilarating quali-ties. Another writer says: "If you cents for the whole lot." If the life boat Review," contains, in the number of faith, they must blame ne one which they are supposed to regard to Australia, articles on public in weather, just to suit their timorous struction in France, and other essays unbelief age of Ickleton, in Cambridgeshire.

After my shooting excursions the dogs were fed in their kennels, the food be—substantial. Witness as a contrast, —substantial. Witness as a contrast, they grow more humble and stoops lower than the people of God are nearly ripe, for heaven, they grow more humble and selfwere fed in their kennels, the food besubstantial. Witness as a contrast, ing placed in a long trough. To this in a provincial mansion among us, they grow more humble and self"Griffith Gaunt" he thought a producduty I generally attended myself. On the journals of fashions with illuminated accession, after feeding the dogs, I looked into the kennel through a hole looked into the kennel through a hole looked into the kennel through a hole style of bonnets, explanations of a little accompany of the last in this world, the better he is still accompany to the longer a saint grows in this world, the better he is still accompany to the longer as a looked into the kennel through a somewhat aston. in the door, and was somewhat astonished, not at perceiving a number of rats there, but to see them in the trough, quietly and fearlessly partaking of bread and milk with the taking of bread and milk with the subscribers on the first page, a masterto destruction, and the next day placed digest such aliment. A dress badly vessel cast into the sea; the more it head. I copy the titles of some arti composer, I believe he was far greater the consequence? The postal department is as well served as any private the usual hour the food was placed as "Transactions of the National Association for the Promotion of Social Science," "Education by Means of Workhouses," by Louisa Twining; "District Schools for the English Poor," by Barbara Collett; "Applica tion of the Principles of Education to Lower class Schools," by Mary Car-penter; "Actual State of the Colony of Mettray," by Florence Hill; "Hos-pital Statistics," by Florence Nightin-gale; "The Condition of the Working-Women in England and France," by Bessie Parkes; "Slavery in America suspicions of the little creatures. They by Sarah Redmond; "Improvement by Mrs. Wiggins; "Report of the Society for Furnishing Employment to Women," by Jane Crowe, Most of eral are secretaries of active associa-

cited is the central organ; one of these another the sick. All these articles of conversing with men, discuss study, personal observation of facts how to observe and reason; they go to the bottom of things, and they co THE Boston Bulletin has the fol-she would leave off singing for them first aim, to develop and direct the infant's will, enrol him as the principal us all their delicious odors, only as and the popular intelligence and edu-Lot's wife of salt rheum. Absalom into a chair, and was shedding floods fell a wig-time to hairysipelas. Goli of tears. The public at last became the co-operators in the education choice Christian spirits which never named. by corns, took his pill grimly, and witnessed the tunuit, and gave orders progressed. Desdemonia also took a to the police to clear the streets. spring up from within. Whoever forth, filling all the moral atmosphere Ir is stated that several fine war with what precision and what justice Solomon, "it is as ointment poured Whether he won upon the old man by one of those peculiarities of his "native worth" in particular, or by their great was crushed by a rock. Napotential can only be intered.

Of heart disease, Governor Homman dress for gone in decay that there is no possibility of saving them, Among them are the Colossus, which was intended to be, when finished, a double-she understands the human heart better than the control of the control quire convictions, impart them to which has just been brought to light had dreamed that her lover had fallen others, employ powers and employ at Pontarlier. It appears that a young under the cars and had been so serithem well, that is something; one widow of that town had the misforsigned for their decay is the fact, that may laugh if one likes, say that these tune to have a handsome Prussian two hours. She told > one's self and of one's books, occur during the twenty-four hour's of talk. ist is a woman of the world, and even servants in proportion, a large

In a still ty, and went to Dresden, which he would give his ones of the sample of the carried by the control of the mode of the control of the mode of the control of the mode.

In a still ty, and went to Dresden, where money to he had one to the control of the mode of the carried of the mode of the carried of the mode of the carried of the mode.

In a still ty, and went to Dresden, where money to he had one to the control of the the carried of the mode of the carried of the mode.

In a still ty, and went to Dresden, where money to he had one to the control of the mode of the carried of the mode.

In a still ty, and went to Dresden, the carried of the two was preading over the country in high places. Before the way and fought of the carried of the modes of the modes of the modes of the modes of the mode of the m

REMINDERS OF DUTY.

Vain thoughts, idle words and wicked deeds are like so many drops to quench the spirit of God. Some quench it with the business of the to his friend Dickens says: "There grieved before it is quenched.

all was silent, she looked upanxiously nto the lase of the backslidden father

The compass on board an iron vesfor all that, its evident desire is to be wicked world, and in this fleshly sistent tendency to point toward beaven and God. On board iron vesaway from the cause of aberration as possible; a wise hint to us to elevate

Do you fear wrath? Christ can de-liver you from the wrath to come. Do reach heaven with any tale but this : I was washed and made white in the lines:

sejourned in France, informs me that rocks in the storm, they constantly here no well-brought-up woman reads "cry out for fear," and declare that such platitudes. On the contrary, a they are going to the bottom. If such special review, "The English Women's | desponding doubters will not exercise which I am turning over the pages, themselves. God will not build anstatements and letters on emigration other boat, nor order perpetual calm chit-chat about theatres, nor reviews bows its head and stoops lower than above piece of absurdity and inanity. It is saints. A Christian in the progress of shameful that a human intellect can his knowledge and grace, is like a The New Testament is full of the proffers of salvation to a lost world. Christ said, "Come unto me all ye that are weary and heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Him that cometh unto me I will in no wise cast out." The parable of the marriage supper, and of the predigal son, and his declarations of the judgment day, all plainly show the power and extent of his salvation. On the day of pentecost an apostle cried "Whoso ever calleth on the name of the Lord shall be saved," and another declared of him "wherefore he is able to save them to the attermost, who come anto God by him, seeing that he ever liveth to make intercession for them." A father with his little son is jourwhen at night he pitched his tent in some pleasant valley, the child is ence about the tent, and digs up the the enclosure. But the father says "No, my son. Our home is far distant. Let these things go, for to morrow we must depart." Now, God is and strangers, homeward; but we de-whose builder and maker is God." There are beautiful, plants and fralates an episode of love and war upon related to her mother that she they were built of white oak instead of Florida live oak, which could not be obtained at that time. Another women. As you please; but contrast they were not far women. As you please; but contrast they were not far women. As you please; but contrast they were not far women. As you please; but contrast they were not far women. As you please; but contrast they were not far wheels her patriotism, Cupid succeeded in had terribly crushed and mangled his girls who write; they continue none was that, as soon as the town heard young man who had met so terrible AT a recent masked ball at Paris of the authoresses whom I have cited dignant repaired to the widow's house young lady and said she had bad the less pleasing and natural. Most of the intended nuptials, the most in- a death came to the house of the are, on the authority of my friends, and smashed up all her furniture, and news for her. She then related the domestic ladies of very simple habits.

I have named two among them who possess genius; a great French artist whose name I could mention, and who has spent several days with ment. The widow has since sold off each of them, did not know that they and gone to Fatherland to join her

M-, being invited to the country, fested in the American female pay- interest. The latter gentleman h discovered that the mistress of the sique and appearance within the past just retired from business, and is one ouse knew much more Greek than dozen years. He says the old dys- of the wealthiest gentlemen in the himself, apologized and retired from peptic, faded look is dying out of their Southwest. Although sixty-five years the field; then, out of pleasantry, she wrote down his English sentence in Greek. Note that this female Hellenstylish. Moreover, she has nine attributes to improved food and exer- evening, for a single day. cise. A dezen years ago, ladies found reporters, foremen and clerks passed waters of the Sectambasa vivos of the depth of five or six feet. He believes in the system more than ever now.

Whether the love that outweighed judgment and regret in the heart of one mother is to be emulated, is matter for argument, but certainly it was beautiful. This mother, a few days it is now thought that they are made up of the bodies of decayed animals and plants, most of which are of marine origin. This supposition resison the fact that the anchors of ships mother. The police officer who was the fact that the anchors of ships mother. The police officer who was the fact that the anchors of ships mother. The police officer who was the fact that the anchors of ships mother. The police officer who was the fact that the anchors of ships mother. The police officer who was the fact that the anchors of ships mother. The police officer who was the fact that the fact that the proportion, a large, well-appointed house, frequent and numerous visitors; throughout all this, persect order; never noise or fass; the machine appears to move of its own accord. These are gatherings of facture of the temporal time of the carried house, frequent and numerous visitors; throughout all this, persect order; never noise or fass; the machine appears to move of its own accord. These are gatherings of facture and of contrasts which might make us reflect. In France we believe too readily that if a woman of the loudicious use of beer and other slops? The police officer who was not crushed out, for she was the fact that the anchors of ships mother. The police officer who was the fact that the anchors of ships in the Chinchs and proposed that the first parameter of the temporal passent of the conclusions, and proposition, a large, the first proposition and numerous visitors; throughout all this, pastry; now, meats, salads and other supported house, frequent and numerous visitors; throughout all this, pastry; now, meats, salads and other supported house, frequent and numerous visitors; throughout all these substantials have supplanted

DICKENS'S FAVORITE AUTHORS.

James T. Fields, of Boston, in his world; some quench it with the lust were certain books of which Dickens of the flesh; some quench it with the liked to talk during his walks. Among cares of the mind; some quench it his especial favorites were the writ-with long delays—that is, not plying ings of Cobbett, D Quincy, the Lecthe motion when it cometh, but crossing the good thoughts with bad thoughts, and doing a thing when the Spirit saith not. The Spirit is often | was the book of all others which he rieved before it is quenched.

In Mariposs, California, there lived er tired—the book which always apa large-eyed, beautiful little prattler—
Mary Cannon. One evening, when to the fresh imagination he brought to it, a book for inexhaustibleness to be placed before every other -who had ceased to pray in his family book. When writing the "lale of andsaid, "Pa, is God dead?" "No. Two Cities," he asked Carlyle if he my child. Why do you ask me such a question as that?" "Why, pa, you never talk to Him as you used to do" Carlyle packed up and sent down to These words haunted him until he gad's Hill all his reference volumes, reclaimed. He related the incident and Dickens read them faithfully. o one recently traveling in that cir. But the more he read the more he was astonished to find how the facts had passed through the alembic of Carfor all that, its evident desire is to be true to the pole. True hearts in this part of one great whole making a compact result, indestructible and body, are all too apt to swerve, but they still show their inward and perreference, and re-residing with increased wonder this marvelous new sels it is a common thing to see a growth. There were certain books sels it is a common thing to see a compass placed aloft, to be as much which he never spoke except in terms of most ludicrous railery. our affections and desires; the nearer to God the less awayed by worldly inboyhood and his first experience of a bore. He had an almost supernatural hatred for Barlow, "because he was so very instructive, and always hintou lear the curse of a broken law? ing doubts with regard to the verselty Christ can redeem you from the curse of Sinbad the Saifor, and had no beof the law. Do you feel far away? He whatever in 'The Wonderful Christ has suffered to bring you nigh to God. Do you feel unclean? Christ's Dickens rattling his mental cane over blood can cleanse all sin away. Do the head of Mr. Barlow was as much you feel imperfect? You shall be complete in Christ. Do you feel as if you were nothing? Christ shall be "all Hood's poems, especially in that things" to your soul. Never did saint biting Ode to Ras Wilson, and he would gesticulate with a fine fervor the hypocrites who ope Heaven's door Obsequious to the single man of riches— But put the wicked, naked, bure-legged poor In parish stocks instead of brooches. One of his favorite books was Pepys's Diary, the curious discovery of the key to which, and the odd characteristics of its writer, were a never-halling source of interest and amusement to him. The vision of Pepys banging round the door of the theater, apping for an invita ion to go in, not being able to keep away in spite of a promise he had made to himself that he would spend no more money foolishly, felighted him. Speaking one day of Gray, the author of the Elegy, he said: "No poet ever came waiking down to posterity with so small a book under his arm." He preferred mollett to Fielding, putting "Peregrine Pickle" above "Tom Jones." Of the best

POSTAL STAILSTICS.

The current number of the Gotha Imanac, the most highly valued of statistics showing the number ters passing through the postoffices of the principal countries of the world.aty. It would appear that the aggregate is so not far from three thousand million for the last year is as follows: Great Britain, 808,000,000 letters; United States. 531,000,000; France, 484 000,-Austria, 99,090,000; Italy, 79,000 0:0; official letters, which are counted sepcharmed with the spot, and begs his of a calculation showing the relation interesting, however, are father to rear a house and remain between the number of letters sent, wild flowers, and plants them within ber of letters mailed was 25 per head German States, 8.3; in Austria, 49; taking us, his children, as pilgrims 31; in Russia, 3 It will be a matter sire to build here, and must be often kingdom of Switzerland the properoverthrown before we can learn to tion of letters to population is so large > town on its way west, the young lady morning at the breakfast table her tracted the attention of her mother, who asked her the cause of her appa-

THIRTY-SIX years since, George Wilkins Kendall, of the New O leans Picayune, gave A. M. Holbrook, a. teamer clerk, the business manage ment of that journal, and a quarte